

OPTIONAL SIGHTSEEING: ITALIAN RENDEZVOUS

19 June – 4 July 2010

All optional excursions can be purchased from the Tour Director. You will be asked during the early part of the tour to specify which ones you will be joining. The reason for this is that very often it is necessary to make advance reservations and arrangements, especially to ensure that good seats are available at restaurants, nightclubs or for shows.

Generally, if you subsequently find you are unable to join an optional excursion your money will be refunded by the Tour Director, but there are occasions on which a deduction will have to be made, for example, if meals, theatre or cabaret tickets have been booked or prepaid.

Please note the following list is a general one and not all these excursions will be on offer. Final selection of those excursions which are to be operated will be made by your Tour Director. Some excursions depend on a minimum number of participants, failing to do so, your Tour Director will do their best to suggest an alternative through a local operator. Similarly, weather conditions or other circumstances may not permit the operation of a particular excursion. Prices listed are also subject to change.
